PARENTAL CIRCULAR SCHEDULE FOR PTM DECEMBER 2023

“Learning is not attained by chance; it is sought for with ardor and attended to with diligence.”

Dear Parents

As we bid farewell to the old year, welcoming the new year with open hearts and hopeful spirits, we express our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support and collaboration throughout these months.

It is time once again to review past, renew hope and leave behind all challenges encountered to work towards new goals for nurturing the creative potential within. By working together in identifying the individual strength, passion, and learning style of each student, we can help them reach their full potential. Your active participation is instrumental in fostering a collaborative environment that contributes to the overall development of your child. We request you to visit the school as per the following schedule:
